A.A. BAKHRUSHIN STATE CENTRAL THEATRE MUSEUM

- ❖ National portal “ Russian Theatre Museums” is created in 2017 by the A.A. Bakhrushin State Central Theatre Museum - the scientific and methodical centre of the Ministry of Culture of the Russian Federation - for work with the state theatre museums, the museums of theatres and the museums possessing theatre collections. The portal is created at the expense of the grant of the President of Russia (The program of grants to support projects of the national value in the field of culture and art).
- ❖ State theatre museums are the important scientific, cultural, educational centres collecting and storing original ware, documentary and graphic materials on the history of the theatre.
- ❖ A. A. Bakhrushin Theatre Museum, Moscow, is one of the largest museums in Russia with a unique collection of items on the history of domestic and foreign theatre. It was founded in 1894 by the famous Russian industrialist and collector Alexey Bakhrushin, who donated his collection to the state in 1913. Today, the A.A. Bakhrushin State Central Theatre Museum is a complex that includes the Main Estate, 9 branches in Moscow and in Zارايسк, the Moscow region, representative offices in Ulyanovsk and Khakassia. Its collection is 1, 5 million items.

THE PROBLEMS THAT LED TO THIS PROJECT

Museums of theatres occupy an important place in the museum theatre space. Many of them have become no less famous than the theatres under which they were created. Among the Russian theatre and museum collections are the museums at the Bolshoi, Alexandrinsky and Maly theatres, the S.V. Obraztsov State Academic Central Theatre of Puppets and many others.

Thus, the collection of the Maly Theatre enlists 150 thousand items; the A.N. Ostrovsky State Drama Theatre in Kostroma has its own unique Museum of theatre costume.

There are more than 1000 theatres in Russia, (state, municipal, private)

More than 250 theatre museums /archives / collections

Only a small part of the museums (about 50) is presented on the portal MUSEUM.RU

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF MUSEUMS OF THEATRES

- ❖ There are hundreds of thousands of items of great cultural and historical value reflecting the history of all kinds of theatrical art, concentrated in the funds of the theatre museums of Russia
- ❖ Among them are posters and programs of performances; portraits of outstanding actors, directors, playwrights, ballet masters, ballet dancers, composers, artists; props, objects of theatre life, set and costume designs created by the famous artists; scenic costumes of great actors, rare editions on theatre, video and film materials, photos and negatives; documentary materials representing archives of theatre figures, materials on history of theatre; personal belongings of prominent representatives of the national theatre.

PROBLEMS OF RUSSIAN MUSEUMS OF THEATRES

- They are not included in the centralized museum system
- museum collections as part of the national theatre heritage are not presented to the state, not introduced into the scientific and cultural circulation, in a wide public context
- museums do not have the appropriate status in many theatres
- tens of thousands of items of great artistic and cultural value do not have an internal accounting system and are not included in the State Museum Fund

OBJECTIVES OF THE NATIONAL PORTAL:

- ❖ preservation of the unique theatre heritage of Russia in all the diversity of its genres
- ❖ ❖ organization of the open access to theatre materials, concentrated not only in state museums, archives, libraries, but also in museums of theatres; their introduction to the scientific and cultural circulation
- ❖ ❖ creation of a single all-Russian museum theatre space

PARTICIPANTS OF THE NATIONAL PORTAL

PROJECT VALUE

For the first time, the NATIONAL INTERNET PORTAL presents the history and fund collections of Russian state theatre museums, museums of theatres / archives, as well as famous Russian archives and libraries that store unique theatre collections.

This is the first large-scale project, reflecting through museum collections not only the history of individual museums / theatres / archives / libraries with unique collections of theatrical art, but a retrospective of theatre historiography of Russia

PERSPECTIVES OF PORTAL DEVELOPMENT

PERSPECTIVES FOR FURTHER DEVELOPMENT OF THE PORTAL SUPPOSE:

- the inclusion in 2019 of Russian theatres abroad (there are more than 80 such theatres in different countries of the world - Austria, Australia, Bulgaria, the Baltic States, Brazil, Germany, Georgia, Denmark, the USA, Canada, Italy, Israel, Spain, Cyprus, Costa Rica, the Netherlands, Finland, etc.), working with the Association of figures of these theatres and curators of collections on theatre history;
- inclusion in the portal of theatre collections of the state archives of Russia;
- further identification of museums / archives / collections of theatres of Russia and presentation of their materials on the portal.
- The most important task will be to resolve the issue of including materials from museums of theatres in the State Museum Fund.
